Friends of the Baldwin Public Library to Hold Used Book and Media Sale

BIRMINGHAM, MICH. (February 10, 2022) — The Friends of the Baldwin Public Library will hold a special sale of used books and media on Saturday, February 19 from 10 a.m. -3 p.m. and Sunday, February 20 from 12-2 p.m. on the lower level of the Baldwin Public Library. Special advance access will be available Friday to a limited number of people who pre-purchase a ticket via the Library Events calendar at baldwinlib.org/calendar. All proceeds benefit the Library's programs and services.

Friends President Ryndee Carney said "For the first time we are giving shoppers access to a treasure trove of recently donated items that are kept in the Friends 'Secret Room' at the BPL. Patrons will be able to make selections directly from shelves, just as they do at the library or their favorite book stores."

Community members have been generous with their recent materials donations, which have filled the Friends storage area to capacity. The upcoming event will be smaller than the group's traditional semi-annual sales but offer access to the most recent donations and deselected library items. Members of the public are invited to browse a large selection of lightly used hardcover and paperback books for children and adults, along with DVDs, and music CDs.

Established in 1950, Friends of the Baldwin Public Library is a non-profit association that supports and enhances the Library's goals. The group of volunteers raises thousands of dollars each year to supplement tax-payer funding the Library receives.
